

Italy in the hands of the servile followers of Globalism and of the EU

It seems incredible that even a man like Berlusconi – expert in every type of communication and longtime enemy of communism – is not aware of what happened in Italy when Matteo Renzi became prime minister. On the opposite, he stated that he likes Renzi because – besides being a man of action – he is not a communist. Berlusconi made a serious mistake. We just saw the more public and "democratic" representation of a wolf seizing and devouring someone belonging to his own species; which is typical of the advent of a communist dictator. Lenin took power in this way. After securing the consent of all, Lenin boldly commanded: let us vote. And they all obeyed; only a small episode showed what would come next. A guard approached Lenin and asked him: "What do I do with this poet who does not want to vote?" And Lenin replied: "What do you want to do, you idiot ? Shoot him!" The poet was shot.

These are not metaphors, this is reality. Italy has been living for years outside of every democratic rule and out of the rules of its Constitution, because Italian governments do not need them. Italian governments are appointed by the center of the Globalist power, whatever the name behind which it operates: Rockefeller, Rothschild, Obama, Bilderberg, Trilateral Commission, Aspen Institute, Council on Foreign Relations, Council of Europe, the monarchies of Great Britain, Belgium, Holland, who are at the head of worldwide Freemasonry and own all the central banks, including the ECB. It is from there that have sprouted and come forward the names of the enthusiast destroyers of European states, through the construction of the EU. And, for the Italian area, come out the names of Ciampi, Amato, Prodi, Napolitano, Draghi, Monti, Bonino, Letta, Renzi. This is why today's Italian parliamentarians even forgot – and also the President of the Republic did – that they are unlawful. "We will complete the term" they all said with pride. Yes, of course: the resolution of the Italian Consulta on the unconstitutionality of the electoral law is just waste paper. And this means that even the power of the judiciary, in Italy and in Europe, is functional to the Globalist power.

The Laboratory for the Destruction of States (the real name of the globalist Center), has devastated Italy more than the other countries, [destroying] the culture, the society, the sovereignty of Italy – the economic failure is only a consequence. Because Italian politicians are servile adepts of Globalism and of the EU; the European flag is everywhere, even though the Treaty of Lisbon in practice abolished it. The absolute fidelity to the will of Europe is given for granted, at the point that the political agenda of these days has not been discussed. Berlusconi weakly said that austerity must be reduced, but this is useless because no one talks about denouncing the Maastricht criteria, which are the real noose around the neck of the European economy. The ministers of the Renzi government, in fact, are all strictly linked to Bilderberg and Bruxelles, which means that they will work as previously did the ministers of the Monti and Letta governments. Their goal is to kill the Italians, to destroy their identity, creativity and freedom, and to subordinate Italy to the Globalists' will. It seems that even Emma Bonino will be confirmed as foreign minister: no choice could be more foolish than that, because equality of women is recognized only in the European West (and not from a long time). In the rest of the world, ie in 90% of the existing states, women are considered inferior, impure, suitable for home and children. Therefore to appoint a woman who deals with the authorities in those states, means that we are considered weak, ridiculous, and doomed to fail from the start.
